This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is made on Jul 2nd, 2024 by and between Alpha Ring Asia Inc., a company incorporated under the laws of Taiwan, with its principal registered office located at 9F, No. 11, Ln. 35, Jihu Rd., Neihu Dist., Taipei City 114066, Taiwan ("ARA"), and Wen, Hsin-Yu 溫心語, with ID No. A223050847 (the "Employee").

Whereby it is agreed as follows:

1. Appointment. Subject to the conditions and covenants contained elsewhere in this Agreement, ARA hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with ARA. The employment will commence on Jul 2nd, 2024 (the "Commencement Date").

2. Position and Duties.

(a) During the term of this Agreement, the Employee shall serve ARA in the capacity as an Internship and perform such additional duties related to the business and operation of ARA as may from time to time be delegated to the Employee by ARA with reasonable care and diligence. The Employee will work in Taipei and agrees to travel as requested by ARA for the purposes of carrying out the Employee's duties in the territories as appointed by ARA from time to time.

(b) As an Intern, the Employee will be responsible for:

(i) Assisting to conduct ARA Market research, compiling, and analyzing information on potential products and market conditions of ARA to identify potential applications and sales opportunities;

(ii) Assisting business development of ARA; and

(iii) Other tasks assigned by the management of ARA.

(c) The Employee will directly report to Judy Chuang, General Manager of ARA, who will define the Employee's operational objectives and evaluate his/her performance through regular performance reviews.

(d) The normal working hours shall be from 8:30AM to 5:30PM (excluding one hour for lunch), ARA may adjust the Employee's normal working hours according to the Taiwan Labor Standards Act (the "LSA"). The Employee shall devote all of his/her working time, energy, skill and best efforts to the performance of his/her duties under this Agreement in a manner that will faithfully and diligently further the business and interests of ARA. The Employee will faithfully comply with this Agreement, working rules, employees' handbook and various plans, practices and rules made and announced by ARA from time to time as well as the applicable laws and regulations.

3. Probation Period.

(a) It is understood by and between the parties that in order for the Employee to be able to perform the work required under this Agreement, it is necessary for the Employee to complete a probation period which will continue for a period of three (3) months starting from the Commencement Date.

(b) In the event that after the completion of the period of probation, the Employee does not, in the opinion of ARA, show sufficient aptitude to enable him/her to perform the work required under this Agreement in a satisfactory manner, ARA shall have the option of terminating this Agreement pursuant to laws and regulations in Taiwan or requiring that the Employee complete an additional period of probation.

(c) Upon the successful completion of probation and upon the determination of ARA that the Employee is competent to perform the work required hereunder in a satisfactory manner, this Agreement shall continue to be effective.

4. Compensation and Benefits.

(a) Compensation. In consideration of the Employee providing services to ARA as outlined herein, ARA agrees to pay base salary of NTD 200 per hour, prorated and paid in accordance with the normal payroll practices of ARA.

(b) Benefits. The Employee will be entitled to participate in the statutory pension scheme and other statutory social insurances in accordance with the laws and regulations of Taiwan. The Employee shall also receive such other benefits as may be made available from time to time by ARA.

5. Annual leave.

During the term of this Agreement, the Employee shall be entitled to fully paid annual leaves according to the Taiwan laws and regulations.

6. Term and Termination.

(a) The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Commencement Date, and, subject to the termination in accordance with the termination clause below, shall continue until the date that this Agreement is terminated.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated by:

(i) ARA and the Employee with mutual consent;

(ii) ARA based on reasons set out in Article 11 of the LSA with statutory advance notice and severance pay;

(iii) ARA based on reasons set out in Article 12 of the LSA without advance notice or severance pay; or

(iv) the Employee in accordance with Article 14 or 15 of the LSA.

(c) Upon termination of the Employee's employment with ARA, regardless of the reason, the Employee (or his/her heirs, personal representatives or estate) shall promptly return to ARA all documents (including all copies thereof) and other materials and property of ARA and its respective affiliates, or which pertains to ARA's business in the Employee's possession or control, no matter from whom or in what manner acquired.

7. Confidentiality and Non-Solicitation.

(a) Confidentiality. The Employee shall enter into a confidentiality agreement with ARA as indicated in Exhibit 1 – Confidentiality Agreement and agree to comply with all confidentiality obligations stipulated in the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) Covenant Not-To-Compete. The Employee hereby covenants and agrees that during the term of this Agreement, he/she will not engage in business as, or own an interest in, directly or indirectly (through a holding company or otherwise) within the territory of Taiwan, any individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation, joint venture, or any other form of business entity, whether as an individual proprietor, partner, shareholder, joint venture, officer, director, consultant, finder, broker, employee, or in any other manner whatsoever (except on behalf of ARA) which is identical or similar to the scope of the Employee's occupational activities, if such entity is engaged in whole or in part in, identical or similar to, any business of the type and character engaged in and competitive with that conducted by ARA; provided, however, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be deemed to prohibit the Employee from owning [5%] or less of the shares of a publicly held corporation engaged in any such business. The Employee further covenants and agrees that during the term of this Agreement, he/she will not, directly or indirectly within the Territory, render any services of the type rendered by ARA to or for any clients unless such services are rendered as an appointee or consultant of ARA.

(c) Non-Solicitation. The Employee covenants and agrees that during the term of this Agreement and for a period of two years thereafter, he/she will not, directly or indirectly:

(i) Attempt in any manner to solicit from any Client, except on behalf of ARA, business of the type performed by ARA or to persuade any person, firm or corporation which is a Client to cease doing business or to reduce the amount of business which any such Client has customarily done or contemplates doing with ARA whether or not the relationship between ARA and such Client was originally established in whole or in part through the efforts of the Employee; or

(ii) Persuade or attempt to persuade any employee of ARA to terminate his or her employment with ARA, or otherwise employ or attempt to employ or assist anyone else to employ any person who is then, or at any time during the preceding twelve months was, in the employ of ARA.

"Client" shall mean (i) any client of ARA on the date hereof; (ii) any entity or person which is a client of ARA at the time of the alleged prohibited conduct; (iii) any entity or person who was a client of ARA at any time during the one year period immediately preceding the alleged prohibited conduct; and (iv) any prospective clients to whom ARA had made a formal presentation or similar offering of services during the one year period immediately preceding the alleged prohibited conduct.

(d) The Employee hereby agrees and acknowledges that ARA has protectable interests (in the form of trade secrets, strategy, client information, etc. relating to ARA) and that ARA may suffer irreparable harm from a breach by the Employee of any of the covenants or agreements contained in this Section 7. Furthermore, the Employee acknowledges that the restraints contained in this Section 7 are reasonable with respect to subject matter, scope of occupational activities, prospective employer, time period and geographical area and that therefore the potential harm to ARA of the non-enforcement of the restrictions outweighs any harm to the Employee that may be caused by enforcement of such restrictions, by injunction or otherwise.

8. Enforcement.

If at the time of enforcement of Section 7 of this Agreement, an arbitration board or a court holds that the restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope of occupational activities, prospective employer, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated period, scope of occupational activities, prospective employer, scope or geographical area and that the arbitration board or court shall be allowed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope of occupational activities, prospective employer, scope or geographical area permitted by law. In the event of a breach of Section 7 of this Agreement, ARA or its successors or assigns, in addition to other rights and remedies existing in their favor, shall be entitled to receive any damages to which they are legally entitled.

9. Intellectual Property.

In consideration of the service hereunder, the Employee acknowledges that any and all patents, licenses, copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service marks, promotional/marketing/advertising campaigns, assumed names, designs, logos, slogans, computer software and other intellectual property developed, conceived or created by the Employee in the course of his/her service with ARA, either individually or in collaboration with others, and whether or not during normal working hours or on the premises of ARA (collectively, "Developments") shall be, as between ARA and the Employee, the sole and absolute property of ARA, and the Employee hereby assigns the rights thereto and agrees that he/she will, at the request and cost of ARA, take whatever action is necessary to secure the rights thereto by patent, copyright, assignment or otherwise to ARA. The Employee agrees to make full and prompt disclosure to ARA of all such Developments arising during the term of this Agreement. Based on this assignment, ARA has the exclusive right to publish, to make copies and duplicates, modify and to sell the Developments. ARA is entitled to transfer any rights in the Developments to third parties. ARA and such third parties are not obliged to mention the Employee as the author if they publish any Developments. They are free to make any modifications, translations and/or other adaptations and/or can refrain from making any publications. Upon termination of his/her service for whatever reason, the Employee shall surrender all documents and all other outputs made or acquired by him or her in the course of his/her service with ARA.

10. Prior Employment.

(a) The Employee represents that his/her performance of any and all the terms of this Agreement and as an employee of ARA do not and will not breach any agreement to keep in confidence proprietary information acquired by him/her in confidence or in trust prior to his/her employment by ARA. The Employee has not entered into, and he/she agrees he/she will not enter into, any agreement either written or oral in conflict herewith.

(b) The Employee understands as part of the consideration for his/her continued employment by ARA, that he/she has not brought and will not bring with him/her to ARA or use in the performance of his/her responsibilities at ARA any materials or documents of a former employer which are not generally available to the public, unless he/she has obtained written authorization from the former employer for their possession and use.

(c) In the event that, prior to entering the employ of ARA, the Employee terminated employment with one or more prior employers, the Employee agrees to indemnify and hold harmless ARA, its directors, officers and employees, against any liabilities and expenses, including amounts paid in settlement, incurred by any of them in connection with any claim by any of his/her prior employers that the termination of his/her employment with such employer, his/her employment by ARA, or use of any skills and knowledge by ARA is a violation of contract or law.

11. Violation of Covenants.

The Employee acknowledges that a remedy at law for any breach or threatened breach of the provisions of this Agreement would be inadequate and therefore agrees that ARA shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any other available rights and remedies in case of any such breach or threatened breach; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed as prohibiting the ARA from pursuing any other remedies available for any such breach or threatened breach.

12. Survival.

Sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 17 and 18 shall survive and continue in full force in accordance with their terms, notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement.

13. Complete Agreement.

This Agreement embodies the complete agreement between the parties and supersedes and preempts any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

14. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by ARA and its successors and assigns. The Employee may not assign his/her rights or delegate his/her duties or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of ARA.

15. Notices.

Any notices required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed fully given when delivered in person or sent by certified mail to the party for whom it is intended at its or his/her address herein above stated or any other address that may from time to time be designated by any party hereto for such purposes, and when any such notice is so mailed, it shall be deemed to have been given upon such mailing thereof.

16. Replacement.

Without prejudice to his/her other duties, during any period of notice in case of termination of this Agreement, for any reason whatsoever, the Employee must provide ARA all such assistance and co-operation in ensuring a smooth and orderly hand-over of his/her duties as ARA may require and assist ARA in the recruitment process of his/her successor(s) and dedicate the appropriate amount of time to ensure a successful transition period with his/her successor(s).

17. Choice of Law.

All issues and questions concerning the construction, validity, enforcement and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with, the laws of Taiwan

18. Disputes Resolutions.

The parties shall endeavor to amicably resolve a dispute through good faith negotiations. If there are any disputes arising from or related to this Agreement, the parties hereby agree that the Taipei District Court shall be the court of the first instance for any disputes concerning the interpretation, enforcement, and performance of this Agreement

19. Amendment and Waiver.

The provisions of this Agreement may be amended or waived only with the prior written consent of ARA and the Employee and no course of conduct or failure or delay in enforcing the provisions of this Agreement shall affect the validity, binding effect or enforceability of this Agreement.

20. Severability.

In the event any provision of this Agreement is found to be void and unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless be binding upon the parties with the same effect as though the void or unenforceable part had been severed and deleted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement and agree with all its terms.
